12:05 PM – 1:30 PM

Committee Lunch Session: The Intersection of Surgery, Climate Change and Equity

Lanier G-L

Sarah Greenberg MD, MPH; Hannah Cockrell MD; Elizabeth Hansen MD

Climate change is a significant and rising challenge that affects human health and health equity. If not done with a focus on sustainability, delivery of surgical care is deleterious to the environment. This session explores how the surgical community can unite to reduce the carbon footprint of surgical services and subsequently augment health equity and decrease surgical disease.
